

Established in 2024 for a new generation of collectors and dealers, the GREAT AMERICAN COIN AND COLLECTIBLES SHOW (GACCS) delivers more new and relevant trade-show innovations, plus the vitaly important in-person viewing, face-to-face transactions and educational opportunities that are possible only at a professional event.

EXPECT MORE FROM A GACC SHOW!

- Convenient location. The world-class Donald E. Stephens Convention Center is just 10 minutes away from O'Hare International Airport. Show parking is close and reasonably priced.
- Familiar, comfortable venue. Same amenities and large exhibit hall as many previous ANA events.
- Huge bourse. 200,000 square feet, filled with hundreds of national, regional and local dealers of all sizes.
- Your choice of entry passes. Arrive when you want, or take advantage of early-access opportunities.
- Certified and raw coins, bullion and a wide range of collectibles in all price ranges, including separate sections for world, ancient, Asian and stamps.
- All major grading services will be in attendance.
- Large Heritage Auction-Lot Viewing. Heritage Auctions is the official auctioneer for GACC events, and co-sponsor of the 2026 show.
- Newer, more modern interactive programs and displays. Don't miss the popular "Numismatic Educational Journey," and see "A Celebration of Numismatics in America on Our Nation's 250th Birthday," featuring important numismatic rarities that defined and changed our collecting history. Highlighting this display will be the finest-known 1804 dollar (the Sultan of Muscat specimen), courtesy of Ian Russell and GreatCollections. Watch for announcements of other exciting programs and educational exhibits, coming soon.
- Discounted hotel rates. Accommodations are available within safe, police-patrolled walking distance, and top-flight hotels are as low as $139/night! We negotiate hard to get you the lowest possible rates! Visit www.GACC.show for links to discounted hotels.
